Oh dear old Red Lion High, Oh dear old Red Lion High
 We'll ever look back to the bold and black of dear old Red Lion High Alma Mater great and grand remained from sea to sea where ere we wander and sons shall stand, they'll ere be true to thee the sign of the fond

FOREWORD

It is the desire of
The Lion of 1938 to revive for the alumni of this institution,
the fast fading past, to record for the students the glowing present, and inspire others to seek a future here.

ON THE HILLTOP

DEDICATION

TO EDGAR C. MOORE

We, the class of 1938, respectfully and devotedly dedicate our senior publication, "The Lion," in grateful appreciation of his twenty-five years of untiring service in the schools of Red Lion. May this dedication be a small token of reward for his many years of sincere efforts and faithful service.

"To live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then should failure come to me,
Still work and hope for victory."

CLASS POEM

When we think of the pleasant memories
That we have of Red Lion High,
We cherish them very dearly,
As parting time draws nigh.

Dear teachers, we hope you'll forgive us
For things we have done we regret,—
A lesson we're taught from experience,
A lesson we'll never forget.

We spent useful time doing nothing,
And it helped us not at all;
Now we're glad you made us study
To answer some needy call.

And now we dream of our future,
Of the joy we'll share with our mate;
And we'll remember that first we were lovers
In the class of '38.

Remember the time you first met her
At a party, in her pink and blue?
And your heart fluttered all evening
Because she smiled only at you.

You finally summoned enough courage
To ask her for a date;
And while you waited, knees knocking,
She accepted!—Dear, kind fate.

Remember the time we played hookey?
You told me not to be afraid;
But when you were "put on the carpet"
You didn't seem so brave.

How can we ever forget you,
"Dear old Red Lion High"—
With your gold and black banner
Waving victoriously in the sky?

No longer will our laughter
Fill your spacious halls;
No longer will our madness
Mock your gracious walls.

But in this sad day of parting,
We leave memories behind
To others trudging forward—
Grave things that should remind.

We're doing our best to be brave
As now we say, "Adieu";
And always remember, Red Lion High,
To you "we'll e'er be true."

—Celia Kriedler.

NATIONAL SCHOLASTIC HONOR SOCIETY

The culmination of any student's career is being elected to the National Scholastic Honor Society of secondary schools. This society has as its emblem the "keystone key." A student is required to rank in the upper third of his class scholastically to be eligible as a candidate. Four points—Service, Leadership, Character, and Scholarship—are considered by a committee of teachers. The members elected are restricted to five per cent of Juniors, and fifteen per cent of Seniors.

The members of the class elected as Juniors were Arlene Smith, Josephine Inners, Melba Zarfes, Estella Tyson, Betty Smith and John Stump.

The Senior members are: Estella Tyson, Josephine Inners, Arlene Smith, Melba Zarfes, Betty Smith, John Stump, Josephine Dietrich, Vivian Hutton, Celia Kreidler, Marie Logan, Charles Johnson, John Matthews, Denton Raub, Janet Runkle, Wanda Smith, Dorothy Valentine, Preston Riddle, Elaine Grove, and Ernest Dunnick.

The Junior members are: Raymond Roth, Virginia Frutiger, Gladys Marks, Ferne Anderson, Bruce Knisely, and Geraldine Flinchbaugh.

NATIONAL ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

The greatest ambition of any athlete in high school is to be elected to this society. A boy, to be admitted to the National Athletic Scholarship Society, must have earned his varsity letter in one of the major sports—football, basketball, baseball, or track—and have a scholastic rating above the general average of the school. This society is a good example of the highest type of citizenship and sportmanship. The purpose of this society is to raise the standard of scholarship among athletes in participating schools. A boy elected to membership in the society is chosen under the supervision of the high school principal.

The members are as follows:

William Day
Archibald Hyson
Ernest Dunnick
Richard Stallman

William Flinchbaugh
Hugh Jennings
Frederick Majewski
Robert Warner
Bruce Gemmill

Raymond Kopp
James Sheffer
Theodore Winters
Arthur Young

BOY SCOUTS, TROOP NO. 34

The boy scouts are taught to live clean, wholesome lives. Their principles are based on the foundations of such characteristics as truthfulness, trustworthiness, and thrift. The scouts of the school troop engage in football, scholastic and athletic meets, basketball, flag raising and many other activities. They are always prepared to help others, as their motto suggests.

The following are members:

Caron Ehehalt
Dick Grinnel
Lloyd Hannigan
Richard Hedrick

PHILATELIC SOCIETY

President.....CHARLES JOHNSON
Vice President.....MARIE LOGAN
Secretary.....ESTELLA TYSON
Treasurer.....JAMES SECHRIST
Adviser.....RAYMOND E. BARNHART

The Philatelic Society was introduced this year into the activities of Red Lion High School by Raymond E. Barnhart, sponsor. The purpose of the club was to interest the students in stamps, to enable those already interested to learn the stories behind stamps and the method of their printing. The meetings were held weekly and there were many interesting programs including a talk by John Grove, an eminent stamp collector from York; short talks by many of the members; the different phases of stamp collecting were discussed by Mr. Barnhart; stamp marts and contests were also held. The Society sponsored an exhibit during National Stamp Week which was visited and admired by many students and teachers.

THE SENIORS

Friends! Romans! and people from the rural sections! It is none other than Johnnie Stump with his gift of gab.—Josephine Inners, a lass with pulchritude and ambition, certainly possesses the long-hunted quality of “dignificism.”—“Grovey,” her dancing partner, loves hair waves and knitted suits. Her home-work is business arithmetic, of course.—We should be vaccinated against that smile of James Runkle’s. It’s worse than smallpox (you catch it quicker).—Lights! Action! Camera! A girl comes walking across the stage! She trips! (That’s Betty Smith.)—Here they come: the three mesquiteers! “Denty” with his crop of curly hair and witty remarks; “Johnny” with his disheveled hair and advertising for the Lion Dry Cleaning; “Oley” with a fresh layer of “axel” grease on his hair plus a zig-zag part that lightning must have struck.—One teaspoon of rosy cheeks, one cupful of broad smiles, and one red beet for high blood pressure completes the recipe for Treva Stein.—How could we forget Janet Runkle’s love to tickle the ivories. (The ivories on the typewriter.)—Milton Stabley—“Boo-hoo! She was tall, tan and terrific; but she got away!”—If you ever see pieces coming down through the azure skies, you know those pieces were from the chemical laboratory of George Ziegler. Maybe the explosion was due to mixing too much “Melbe” with T. N. T.—Pret Riddle will be remembered for his dancing and his speckled face. Of course freckles are a detriment, but at least he has something that Tyrone Power doesn’t have!—Many teachers wished that they were on the gold standard this year, because under that condition maybe “Bing” Frey might have kept his mouth under lock and key. You know the old saying: “There’s gold in them thar cuspids!”—It’s Ralston time with Perry Rawheiser, the hombre from the golden west, with his rootin’, tootin’, shootin’, six-shooter and ten-gallon hat!—Schmuck will always be there when something needs to be attached, mended, secured, and forgotten!—A queer bird that makes his home near Stewartstown and can be seen flying in any hair-pulling football game is “Bob” Warner.—If you want a maid who can burn water, see Annabelle Wise!—A beautiful hand (handwriting), of course, and an abundant supply of cosmetics are two properties of Mabel Sechrist which will never be sold at fire sale.—“backwards” little a is he because way this Thompson “Bill” describe we’d thought We.—I think you’ve got something there, Doris Smith, and it’s more than that brown Ford of Bill’s.—When “Shorty” Snyder goes on the network, broadcasting stations will be discarded; she can be heard from coast to coast as it is.—Ferne Sprenkle is liable to upset the routine of things in baseball. She tells us that she is saving her wonderful arm for the “Giants.”—We ’ave to pardon Victor Young for his French, but for that English accent all we can say is, “Tallyho!”—The name of Theodore Winter will not be like a tree without roots and soon “gone with the wind,” but will be blown around the school halls for years to come!—If you ever see an old maid, you know it isn’t Geraldine Wagman.—An observant thing concerning the name “Dick” Stallman is that you can take the first letter, S, from his name and you have his description.—Ferne Stallman, the promising commercial student, is thinking of looking over a new car. We wonder if it’s the car or the salesman.—Smoke from the chimney means logs on the fire, means “Ash” Smith is keeping the club fires burning.—It’s funny how things do rhyme; but Wilmot Trone and his trombone takes the cake!—It isn’t the butcher nor the baker but it’s the baker’s daughters: “Bernie” with her infectious smile, and “Corky,” our “best student.”—That friendship between Estella Goldie Tyson and Dorothy Elizabeth Valentine is like Bruce Gemmill’s unruly hair—hard to part.—Virginia Smith takes the physical property of lead. She is a little heavy.—Remember those two inseparable twins. They’re not the Siamese, only Mable and Marion Heiland.—Just the opposite of taciturn and bashful is Charles Fauth.—Those office men who have jealous wives should employ Maurice Henry as secretary.—In a little vale, not far away, Springvale to be exact, lives Ethel Hoffman.—An ambitious, dependable, and undignified commercial senior is Horace Heiss.—Here comes Irwin Hershner, with hay in his hair and a bashful personality.—The Hess-bus line would gladly merge with the Winter-Tobacco Company, if the matter were in Marguerite’s hands.—If there were a race between a snail and Dick Heyne to school, undoubtedly the snail would win.—Marie Logan is that lovable senior who is everybody’s friend.

THE SENIORS

Several of our girls who unlike many Seniors are living up to the saying "Silence is golden" are Violet Akins, Charlotte Dietz, Alma Heffner, Gladys Fauth, Mildred Sechrist and Mildred Landis.—Here comes that cute, curly-headed girl who's always into everything,—none other than Sue Allen.—Who will be the lucky businessmen to have Martha Barshinger, Verna Baker, Dortha Craley and Violet Craley as their private secretaries?—A petite girl who is very popular with the boys is Dorothy Bowser.—We wonder if Ross Brown will follow in his father's footsteps?—When you hear a "click" that's just Evelyn Curran taking pictures for the yearbook.—Our two athletic Bills, Day and Flinchbaugh, were co-captains of the basketball team.—Earle Ellis is our quiet and efficient chemist.—When it comes to activities we will always find Jo Dietrich ready and willing to help.—Dale Fix and Henry Flinchbaugh are the boys who are always heard before they're seen.—Eugene Gemmill, our happy-go-lucky boy, is always in mischief.—Esther Grim has an undying interest in Springvale.—Luther and Richard Grim are brothers who hail from Winterstown.—Ernest Dunnick may be a wizard in basketball but as a Frenchman he's "mighty per."—"Thin as a toothpick." Why, that just suits Charlotte Anderson!—We wonder if Wilbur Eaton still remembers the money he didn't win at bank night?—If you want to be an information bureau, talk to June Daugherty and you must be one.—Did you know we have one of the Seven Dwarfs in our midst? He may not be their size, but he's known as "Dopey" Hedrick.—This is for Arlene Workinger only. Did you get caught sliding down any bannisters lately?—We not only have girls who are quiet but also some boys. They are Dale Hannigan, Robert Gibson, Chester Craley, and Bernard Grim.—Among Bill Douglas' interests are his Ford and a certain girl from Springvale.—Miriam Stump is very much interested in her home town of Yoe. We don't know if the greater interest is Yoe or someone named Henry.—The "Mad Chemist," Lloyd Douglas, did experiments for Mr. Barnhart.—Every morning the High-rock bus arrived driven by David McPherson, with Naomi Montgomery as one of the passengers.—"Redheads on Parade," but the senior class has only one, Velma Stabley.—A girl athlete worth mentioning is Dorothea Landis.—Earle Kilgore came to school for the fun, not the work.—The "Martha Raye" of the boys is Luther Frey.—Not an ordinary Jones boy is Ray! He has done many peculiar things in his home town, Craley.—Robert Kelly, our Ethiopian type or dark-complected boy, would be one of the first to receive an invitation from Mae, herself, to come up sometime!—Celia Kreidler and Betty Jane Knisley are like arsenic to the opposite sex. They kill them.—Two who are always willing are Charles Johnson and Elwood Fauth.—Rosetta Kinard is one of those bashful girls that never blush.—A small lively lassie who shines in the sport parade is Vera King.—Honest to goodness, Kathryn Kise likes Chemistry.—Cleopatra slipped with her Antony, but "Jo" Lloyd is doing all right.—Evelyn Manifold is always telling gossip to her near schoolmate.—Always ready to hear it is Evelyn Keener.—Tuba player, poet and shoe-painter all in one are "Tom Meads."—If you have painting or drawing to be done June is the one to be placed behind the crayon or paint brush.—Clair Noller is Mr. Heckendorn's right hand.—You better duck—here come those rovin' cowgirls "Two-gun" Eby, "Straight-Shootin'" Smith and "Bronc-busting" Barnhart.—Cotton is good for the ears when Arlene Workinger is near.—Emerson Shelly's mouth makes up for his small features.—Lost—the way to the library, if found, call Lloyd Smith.—Is that contagious giggle of Alma Knisley's the after effect of a delicious meal of chicken feathers? Then the chicken feathers are no doubt supplied by Harold McAllister, our only true farmer, and cushioned-propped Ford driver.—John Lighty, as "Dopey," would co-star with Betty LaMotte, as "Snow White" in that great production.—A girl who is neat in appearance and a smooth talker is Mildred Sechrist.—Those absences of Ted Majewski were started by the deadly sting of that horrible creature, the love-bug.—Two walking dental works are Ralph Sechrist and "Bunky" Taylor, they both come from the hills of Yoe.—The only person in the class who went abroad and saw things is Robert Strickler.—A little bashful was Betty at first, but now she leaves as a jolly old senior. Oh, Shaw!—A petite young lady with an alto voice that thrills you is Hazel Spurley.—If you ever see Dale Kohler winding up with a baseball, you know he is getting ready to pitch a little woo.—Beatrice Suydam prefers sailboats in the moonlight and not green sedans.—A captivating blonde and "stick" twiller for the band was "Skip" Hutton.—Our best "splinter" for the relay team and turnip grower is Archibald Hyson.—Robert Burns and his bazooka have nothing over "Mip" Jennings and his fiddle. So "Mip" plays while Robert Burns.—The complete angler and tellers of fish stories are Dale Keeports and Earle Ellis.
